The Immaculata staff was appointed early in the year to guide the making of a book that would record by picture and story one year of student life at St. Mary's. Personnel shifts and theme changing marked the first feeble efforts at motion. But late in January the staff began synchronizing, and allowing for some bulb and shutter variations over budget-balancing, the Immaculata had no other timing difficulties.

The four key men with their able assistants, the mounting, advertising, and copy staffs, offer you the product of their co-operation. They hope that the book may bring you the happy hours that they planned for you.

The two Junior Class groups deserve the laurel wreath accorded splendid achievement, for their many-sided activity program included the major projects of the school.

Besides editing the school paper, The Marquette, which is a life-sized job in itself, the juniors were hosts at the First Friday breakfasts every month. Plans to finance convention expenses in the future were initiated by the juniors, and they set the pace with a bingo party on December 10. They staged the Christmas play, "The Empty Room", in an afternoon and evening performance. The important pep session—preceding the Red Devil-Blue Blazer game—was on their agenda this year. The final social event of the school year, the Junior-Senior Prom, will be under their auspices.

The Seniors of Today salute the Seniors of Tomorrow and wish them success and happiness during 1941-1942.

One of the brightest spots in the social calendar of the year was the circus sponsored by the sophomore groups. It was entirely different from the usual run of school affairs and was capably directed. Faculty and students enjoyed the afternoon of laughs.

Germaine Grott and Frank Rooney survived for the finals in the oratorical contest. Other contestants in the preliminaries were Dorothy Baunach, Robert Timm, Alvin Levendoski, Doris Carter, Donald Knoll, and James Geleske.

Mildred Scheberle was winner in the Catholic Press poster contest held during February. Other posters considered for originality of theme treatment were made by Theresa Finske, Catherine Williamson, Dorothy Baunach, Germaine Grott, Eulalia Orlowski, Alvin Levendoski, Margaret Aldrich, Frances Sobecki, Betty Swedenberg, Marcella Quinn, Patricia Schopp, Mary R. Stayback.

One sophomore group was responsible for the frolic at the big Christmas party to which the entire school was invited. The classes are organizing plans for the farewell breakfast, which is the last social event in the Senior Class Calendar.

The freshmen elected as class officers for the year: Dan Block, president; Thelma Smith, treasurer; Charles Wiegand, secretary; and Willie Kuhn, social chairman. Although the class sponsored no major school activity, it earned the reputation of eagerly cooperating with any project proposed.

Taking part in the oratorical contest were Doris Stahoviak, Kathleen Aldrich, Willo Kuhn, and Joseph Drysdale. Doris Stahoviak won first place and participated in the finals.

The was-to-be big event on the freshman calendar, a Minstrel Show, scheduled for April 1, failed to materialize for lack of time. The upper classmen know they missed the best time of the school year.

According to tradition the freshmen will have the privilege of presenting the crown used in the May Queen ceremony on May 25.

Banqueters and Dancers Pause While Cameras Click

Into the night under a blanket of stars and around the new moon danced the juniors and seniors of St. Mary's High, on the breath-taking night of May 26, 1940, to the music of Dick Anderson's orchestra. King Mentag and his Queen, Miss Mildred Inauen, opened the annual promenade by leading the Grand March. The royal pair were crowned by class president Thomas Block and his guest, Miss Peggy Hughes.

SENIOR VOICE ENSEMBLE

The two vocal groups, Senior Voice Ensemble and Glee Club, promote the interests of music and contribute the song numbers to school programs. Membership in the Ensemble is limited to those senior students who have studied voice culture for more than one year. The Glee Club is limited in number and the members hold their title by regular attendance and good music record.

The groups will appear in a formal Spring Concert on April 24 and will assist at the piano recital of Arnold Foldenauer during senior week.

Sodality of Our Lady Offers Model of Life-Picture to Student

Officers: Margery Duszinski, James Novreske, Thomas Block, Margretta Cuny, Robert Marske, Mary A. Neulieb, Prefect, Eugene Wiegand, Prefect, Catherine Olvaney.

The Sodality is the major organization at St. Mary's for two reasons: it enrolls all the students as members and its aims are mainly spiritual. It suggests to each sodalist the lofty ideal of personal holiness through imitation of Mary in all walks of life. To motivate group work for the future parishioner, the Sodality carries on its projects in the spiritual, social, literary fields through committees. These committees this year have successfully conducted many programs and drives of importance.

Press Month and Vocation Week were observed with practical emphasis on the immediate and future benefits for each student. The Catholic Action group collected magazines and delivered them at the Michigan City prison for the library there. Speakers were secured to address the students on college preparation for life. The senior girls staged a play, "In Life's Glad Morn", to portray the approach to a choice of a religious vocation.

To stimulate interest in the study club and other parish activities, the sodality leaders invited the president of St. Mary's College Sodality, Miss Justine Apfeld, to address the members. Miss Apfeld's actual experiences in a South Bend parish furnished the background for her appeal to the students to affiliate themselves with all parish groups. Her demonstration of a discussion club was an interesting feature of the assembly.

Outside the religious field the sodality sponsored discussions at which the spiritual director, Father Roesler, presided. Sister Marie Jean is the sodality moderator. Mary A. Neulieb and Eugene Wiegand are co-prefects. The sodality hopes to send delegates to the Chicago Catholic Action School in August where, through the kindness of the Knights of Columbus, last year, Mary Ann Neulieb and Catherine Olvaney learned the technique of organization and sodality maintenance.

Senior Play--Heroes Just Happen

"Heroes Just Happen" was presented by the Senior Class in the latter part of April. The play was directed by Mrs. Frank Millar of the South Bend Conservatory.

The scene of action is the Ivy Lane High School, a former fire house. Joe Thompson is a boy who has developed an inferiority complex in his travels from relative to relative and school to school. Being mistaken for another boy, Joe "Flash" Thomson, who is a scholar and a great athlete, Joe naively masquerades under that title. Joe wins the most important football game of the season and is hailed as a hero. Quite baffled, Joe receives the acclamations and presents of the faculty and the student body. Climactically, the real "Flash" Thomson appears in the midst of the celebration. Joe is declared an imposter and the faculty's opinion of him is rapidly deflated.

As the egotistic "Flash" Thomson ridicules Ivy Lane High, Joe suddenly recovers and gallantly defends it. The faculty sees that Joe is "true blue" and decides not to expel him. Principal Garfield gives Joe a job on his farm. He is elected captain of next season's team and receives the nickname "Speedy."

The leading roles were played by Bob Mallon, Joe "Speedy" Thomson, and Ruth Jellison, Leslie Adams. Other characters in the play include Tom Dobeski, Principal Garfield; Eugene Orlowski, Fire Chief Sorenson; Don Mallon, Mr. Kemble, history teacher; Virginia Murray, Miss Quinby, singing teacher; Genevieve Pizarek, Miss Hammerly, English teacher; Kathleen Phalen, mathematics teacher; Eugene Wiegand, Coach Blades; John Scholl, Jack Turner, football captain; Tom Block, Brick, right tackle; Ed Timm, Frederick, ex-school idol.

Ellen Reinke, Buster; Eloise Wagner, Amy; Elizabeth Gosnell, Bonita; Rita Kintzele, Mrs. Thompson; Jean Halverson, Bird, Johnny Miller, Uncle Frank Thomson; William Bercich, Timothy; Dean Sassaman, Joe "Flash" Thomson; Lois Jean Kuhn, Peggy; Leona Markowski, Grace; Jacqueline Egle, Secretary.

The stage manager is William Meyer; electrician, Dean Sassaman; properties, Lucian Lisak assisted by Lawrence Creager. Lois Jean Kuhn and Genevieve Pizarek have charge of the publicity and the programs.

COACH ELY PRESENTS AWARD TO BOB MALLON

MOST-VALUABLE-PLAYER AWARD

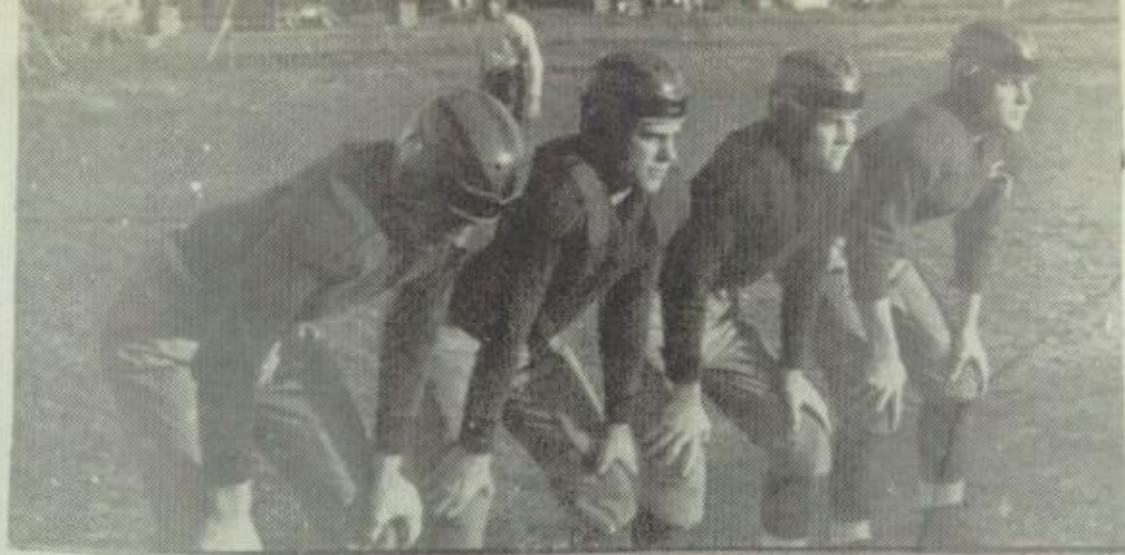

For the first time in the history of St. Mary's a public presentation of a city award included the Blazer Team. The award, a golden football, was the gift of the News-Dispatch to the most valuable player on each of the two city teams. The honor for St. Mary's team went to Bob Mallon, captain of the Blazers and was presented to him by Eugene Ely, St. Mary's athletics coach at the Tivoli theater.

St. Mary's Loses Coach

This is Coach Ely's final year with the Blazer teams. Mr. Ely has been offered an advancement in his coaching career as Line Coach at Wichita University, Kansas. His leaving is keenly regretted by the Faculty, students, and friends of St. Mary's; they realize their loss and congratulate Wichita on its gain. To the students Mr. Ely was more than coach and teacher—he was an example, a counselor and a friend. In his new capacity as college coach St. Mary's wishes him all the success and happiness the prayers of grateful friends can bring him.

Football Season

Tho the small but scrappy Blue Blazers of 1940 displayed a great deal of color and finesse in their brand of football, at the end of the season, they showed a record of three victories against five defeats.

The Blazers opened their season against St. John of Benton Harbor. After a nip and tuck battle, the Blazers lost a heartbreaker 14 to 7. St. John was the winner by the score only.

At Griffith the Blue and Gold played their first night game of the season. After handing the Panthers a touchdown in the opening minutes of the game, by virtue of a misunderstanding of a free-ball on the kick-off, the Marymen buckled down to the business at hand. The Blazers returned to display a powerful offense and down their foes by a score of 18 to 12.

Then came the inter-city clash which sent the Blazers against the strong Michigan City Red Devils. Despite the ceaseless efforts of the Elymen, they lost 13 to 0.

The following week the highly touted St. Joe team invaded the Elymen encampment. A strong defense plus one sustained drive of 60 yards for a touchdown and conversion proved to be the margin for the Marymen's second victory as they won 7 to 0.

St. Augustine, Kalamazoo, was host to the Blue and Gold as they tried for their third win of the season. After holding the fighting Irish scoreless in the first half, the Blazer defense loosened and they were defeated by a score of 20 to 6. The Elymen probably played their best defensive game of the season in the first half.

Against the South Bend Catholic the following Sunday, the Marymen, hampered by injuries received in the St. Augustine clash, were unable to cope with the bone-crushing Lions as they went down in defeat 18 to 0.

Returning in tip-top shape for their encounter with the St. Francis team of Chicago, the Blue and Gold played their heads-up ball and turned back the Chicagoans 25 to 13.

Handicapped by a muddy playing field, the Blue Blazers lost their final game to the South Bend Central Catholic Indians.

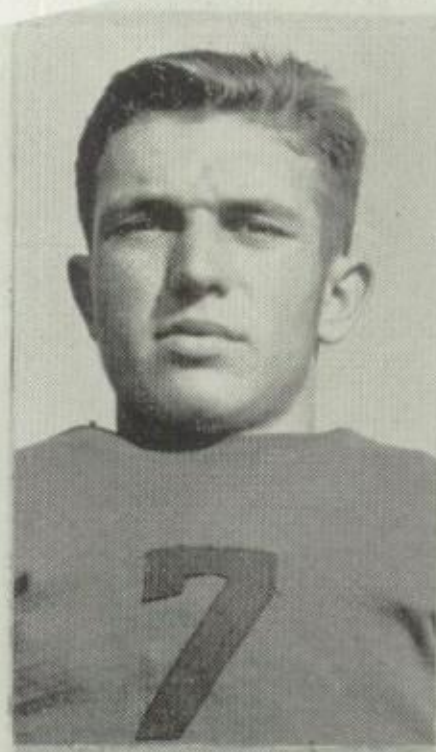

In viewing prospects for the '41 season, we see that Coach Ely has ten lettermen returning which should cause him many happy dreams. Maybe your dream will come true, Coach. We, the parting seniors, sincerely hope so. The ten lettermen who should cause much worry among rival coaches are: William Robowski, Jim Younkers, Bernard Kutch, Phil Doherty, George Scholl, Bill Novak, John Lewalski, Glen Kutch, Bill Swedenberg, and Paul Evans.

Senior Monogram Players

There are six graduating monogram winners who we feel deserve a note of recognition, so we start off with Bob Mallon, our captain, was one of the best backs in S. S. C. C. Conference and a likeable fellow. Scrap and courage were his will and it will take a mighty man to fill in his small shoes. The team is sure to miss his excellent playing next year.

Don Mallon, brother to the captain, tried three years before he made the team, but his stamina won him a first string job as well as a deserved letter. We'll say good-bye to Don but will miss his scrap.

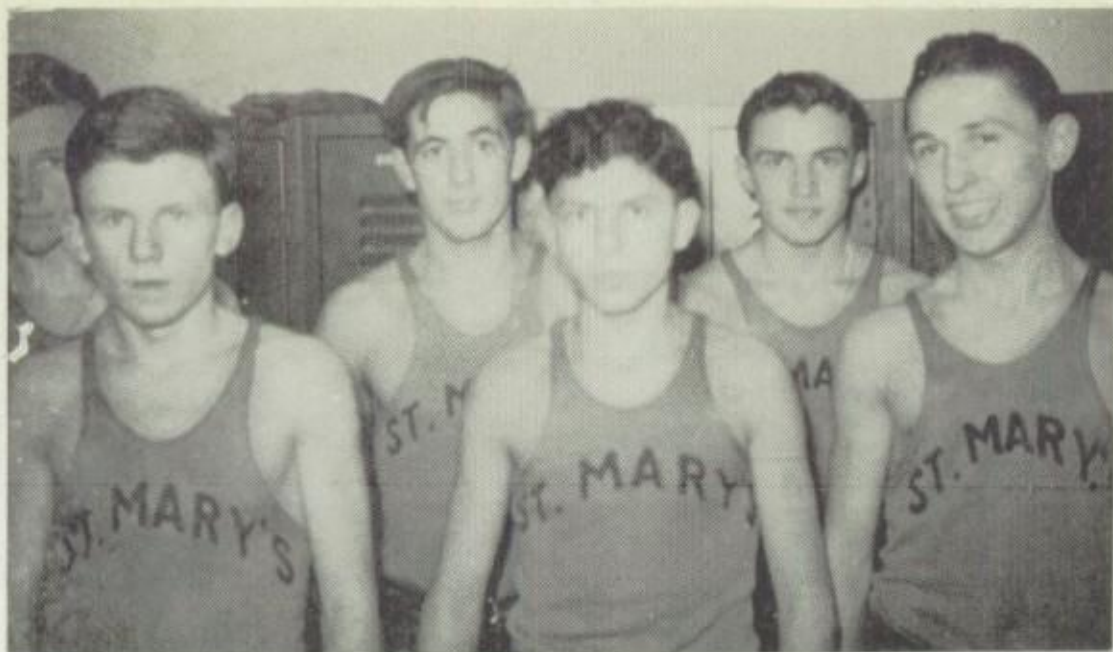

Gene (Farmer) Wiegand, a husky end and won two letters due to his fine ability to catch passes, providing he could get near them. Gene's height, weight, and fight will be absent next year and this will be a shock to the team.

Bill Bercich was the "battering ram" of the team. Whenever those all-important two or three yards were needed, he was the man to call on. He held down the fullback spot for three years and never failed to turn in a good game. The fat man of the eleven.

Lucian Lisak, although (Adjo) was hampered in his first two years by injuries, he returned in his senior year to give a great performance. He was one of the fastest backs on the squad and also an excellent defensive man.

Jim Novreske was a first class tackle and the best blocker on the team. If it takes two good tackles to make a team, the Blue Blazers certainly had half a team at least.

In viewing the prospects for the '41 season we see Coach Ely's successor has ten lettermen returning, which means Saint Mary's has a bright future in store. In parting, we, the seniors of '41, have one earnest desire and that is that S. M. has their first undefeated season next year.

Shooting Stars

The Blue and Gold cagers had the most successful season ever experienced by a Blazer quintet in the history of St. Mary's. With this accomplishment in mind we feel we should introduce to you the boys responsible for this fine record.

First of all we have Captain Gene Wiegand who is one of the four graduating seniors and also one of the four skyscrapers. Gene played the pivot spot for the greater part of the season and was a constant menace to the opposition with his freak shots and excellent rebound work. He was the second high scorer on the team.

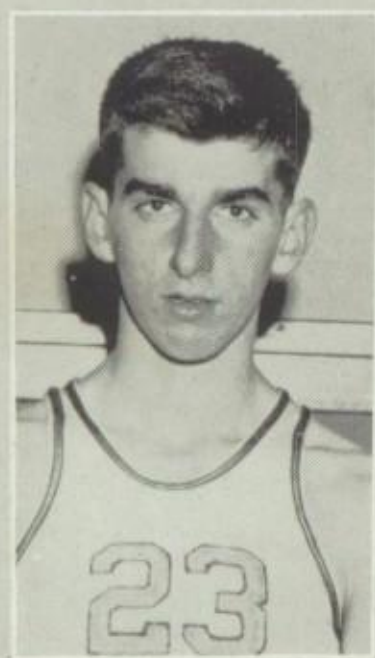

And now we would like you to meet the tallest of the skyscrapers and also a senior, Ed Timm. Ed always turned in a good game and was our best rebound man. He chalked up 21 points in one tilt which was the high game of the season.

Dropping down about a foot we introduce Dean Sassaman, our diminutive senior forward. Although he suffered injuries and illness for a greater part of the season, he proved that his absence next year will be greatly felt and difficult to replace.

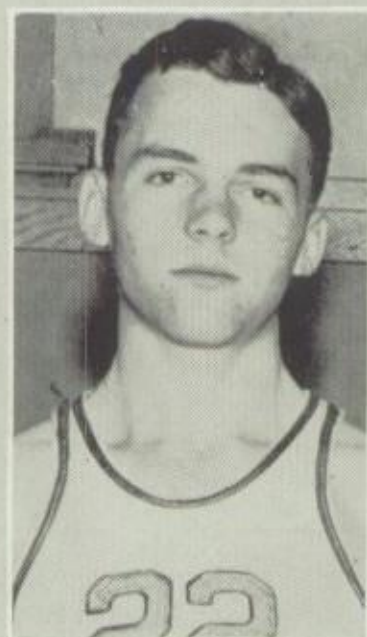

And now we introduce Bob Mallon, the remaining senior, a two-year varsity man, and an important gear in the Blazer machine. His scrap and stamina will be missed next year.

The two remaining members of the four skyscrapers are in the Junior Class, Jack Kelly and Joe Dolezal. Jack was known as our best defensive man while Joe (Zeke) with his accurate left hand was high scorer for the team.

Keeping these two in mind and add such players as Clarence Wetzel, Joe Kniola, Bill Swedenberg, and John Lewalski we know there can be nothing but a bright future for the Blue and Gold cagers of '41 - 42.

Basketball Season

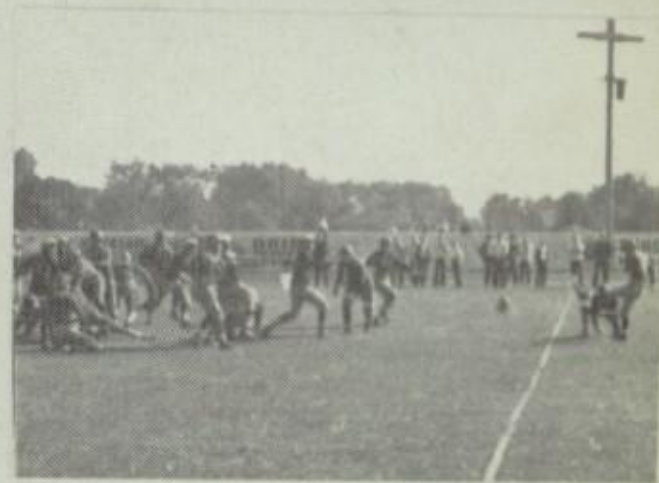

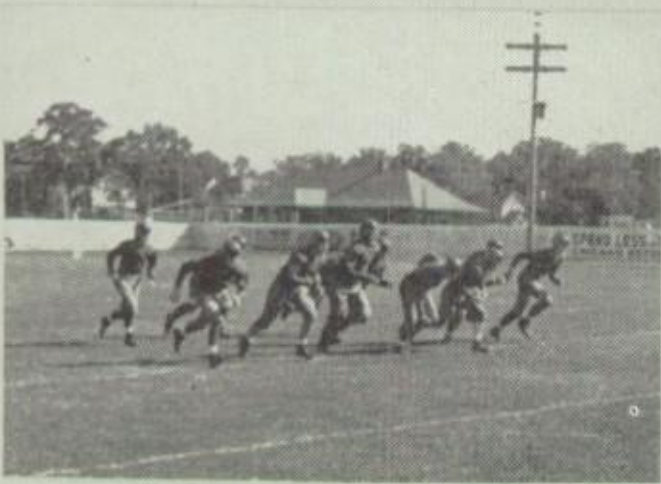

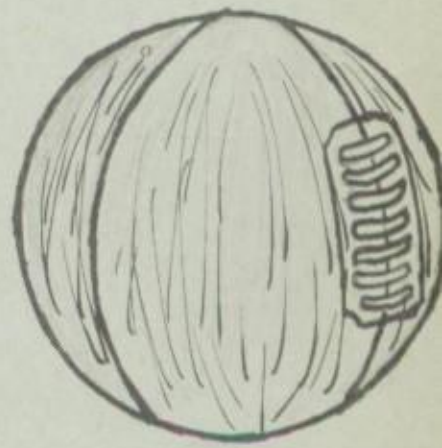

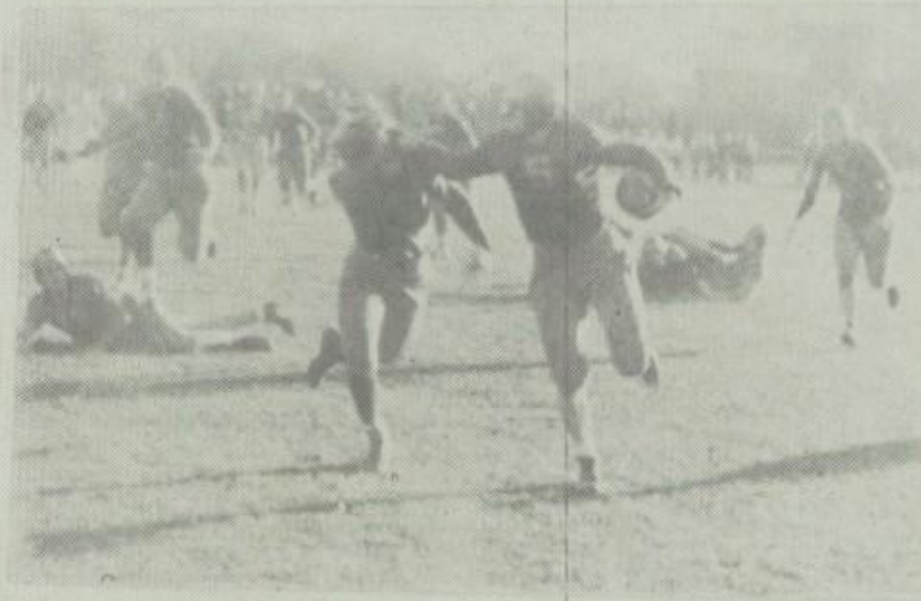

Eight victories against ten defeats was the record of the Blazer basketballers at the end of the '40-'41 season. The Elymen opened with a "bang" by winning three consecutive games from South Bend Catholic, 27-23; Portage, 42-28; and Catholic Central South Bend, 27-22. Griffith's Panthers broke the winning streak, 30-28. Traveling to Chesterton, the Blazers lost their second game of the campaign, 39-22. Reaching the season's peak, the Elymen won three more consecutive games against LaPorte County's sectional champs, Rolling Prairie, 39-36; Porter County's conference champs, Liberty Center, 29-26; and Catholic Central South Bend, 48-36. At Hammond the Marymen lost a heartbreaker to Catholic Central's warriors, 35-33. Union Mills dealt the Blazers one of their worst defeats, 44-19. Lacking height Benton Harbor fell apart before an Elymen second half onslaught, 60-39. Slipping rapidly, the Marymen lost four games in a row to LaCrosse, 30-25; Chesterton, 34-31; Michigan City, 60-30; and Hammond, 35-29. Playing their last game of the regular season, the Elymen triumphed over South Bend Catholic's Lions, 36-32. Meeting Hammond Catholic for the third time during the season at the Catholic state tournament, the Blazers lost a tough one 25-23. In the final game the Blazers, after leading for three quarters, lost to Dyer, 33-28.

The Elymen scored a total of 576 points; their opponents scored 607 points.

Joe Dolezal scored the highest total number of points for the second time. Joe netted 167 points.

Ed Timm scored the greatest number of points in a single game. Ed dropped in 21 points against South Bend Central Catholic in the second meeting.

The Blazer-Red Devil game drew the largest crowd. An estimated total of 3,000 fans attended the tussle.

Coach Ely

Interclass Tournament

Student Coach Lewis Retseck and Captain Kelly take possession of Little Blue Jug. Champs look on.

The Little Blue Jug was at stake again in the 1941 feud which began on March 12. In the first game the juniors downed the freshmen by a score of 36 to 16 in a one-sided game. The freshmen proved no match for the juniors' height and ability.

The second game, which was very much closer in score and a very thrilling game, found the seniors nosing out the sophomores in the last 23 seconds of play by a score of 24 to 23. This gave the seniors a right to meet the juniors for the Little Blue Jug playoff.

The championship game started with the seniors leading in the early minutes only to have the juniors take away the lead in the latter minutes of the first half. The score at the midway point was 13 to 5 favoring the juniors.

The second half started with the juniors dropping in a barrage of buckets to turn a close game into a rout. The game ended with the juniors becoming the owners of the Little Blue Jug by the score of 44 to 13.

At the end of the game Coach Ely presented the Little Blue Jug to Jack Kelly, captain of the Junior team.
